

Yashwantrao Chavan Maharashtra Open University, Nashik-422222

Centre for Collaborations and Special Initiatives

On the occasion of foundation day of the University, every year we organise various camps such as health check up, blood donation etc. this year in 2021, Centre for Collaborations and Special Initiatives of university has organised a blood donation camp in collaboration with Metro blood bank, Civil Hospital, Nashik in the campus for all the employees. All the employees enthusiastically participated in all activities organised on the day. Overall 42 employees have donated blood and paid their contribution towards society.

